OBJECTIVE

It is surprising to us how many business' approach us to build them a website when they have no clear objective in mind. "i just need a website" is a common refrain. step back and think about what you want the website to achieve for your business. talk to your front of house staff and your back of house staff, ask your customer service people, your sales staff, your admin staff, they all interact differently with your customers and may have useful insights.

Some common objective of this website:

- Advertising your tourism properties , tour , or destination .
- selling your property , product , service , package , or destination .
- provision of a customer service and support .
- Provision of tourism property , accommodation , service and feature information .
- Creation of brand identity and awareness .
